Our app

The goal is to make a website that serve as a digital encyclopedia for board games. It is a wiki-like app dedicated to curating a vast array of games along with all their important details, sourced from the central database, from the Kaggle dataset.

The platform will provide in-depth information on game mechanics, histories, genres, and ratings, making it a one-stop hub for enthusiasts seeking both factual data and insightful analysis on various board games.

Target Audience

The website aims a diverse audience that includes :

- board game enthusiasts keen on exploring an extensive catalog of games.
- casual players looking for recommendations.
- newcomers seeking guidance on their next play choice.

Additionally, the site serves as a platform for game publishers who wish to showcase and promote their latest releases.

Key Functionalities

The website will offer an array of robust features

- Ranking System: A dynamic leaderboard where games are ranked based on user ratings and reviews, enabling quick identification of top-performing titles.
- New Releases Section: A dedicated area that highlights recently released games.
- Recommendation Engine: Advanced algorithms that provide personalized game suggestions based on users' previously played and rated games.
- Played Games Tracker: A list feature where users can log and manage the games they have played, helping them keep track of their gaming journey.
- Search Functionality: A powerful, filterable search tool that allows users to find games by name, genre, publisher, or other relevant criteria.

- Wiki-Style Pages: Detailed game pages featuring comprehensive information, reviews, images, and user-contributed content, ensuring a rich and engaging user experience.
- Publisher Portal: A section where game publishers can submit and update details about their new releases, streamlining the process of game promotion on the site.
- Reviews : Make users able to leave reviews on game they played, as well as a score, that have an influence on the rating and thus ranking of games.
